

What trainees
have to say:

- “Great training!”
- “It was beneficial for me and my employer.”
- “It was easy to ask questions.”

WHO SHOULD ATTEND...

Every server, manager, and owner who serves alcoholic beverages can benefit from RBS training.

Due to grant funding, we are currently able to offer the training at no charge.

Public Health
Prevent. Promote. Protect.

For more information, contact:

Jeanine Wall-Hebert,
Alcohol Prevention Coordinator
Custer Health
Phone: (701) 667-3370
E-mail: jhebert@custerhealth.com

Responsible Beverage
Service Training

Information You Can Use:

This 2-hour course assists employers in complying with liquor laws and trains servers and sellers in techniques for serving alcohol responsibly.

Certification issued upon completion of the training.

This training is currently offered free of charge through a Federal Strategic Prevention Framework State Incentive Grant to assist in prevention efforts of underage drinking and excessive drinking.

Critical Topics

- Civil Liability
 - Laws Pertaining to Intoxicated Persons
 - Laws Pertaining to Minors
 - Laws Concerning Proper ID and Carding Procedures
 - Physiological Effects of Alcohol
 - Identification of Intoxicated Persons
 - Detection of Minors
 - Intervention with Minors and Intoxicated Subjects
 - Fake/False IDs
-

On March 18, 2015, Governor Jack Dalrymple signed House Bill 1416 into law. This bill allows for a possible reduction in liability for retail alcohol licensee owners, managers, and servers who take an approved beverage server training, such as this.
